Stanley Hupfeld Academy Tribal Regalia Policy

The tribal regalia bill, SB 429, vests students enrolled in a public school district or in an institution within the Oklahoma State System of Higher Education with the right to “wear tribal regalia during the institution’s official graduation ceremonies, whether held at a public or private location.” In the event of a graduation or bridging ceremony at Stanley Hupfeld Academy, Native American students will be allowed to wear feathers, or native regalia.
